Defendants.)

The above-captioned matter for defendant Yat Wa Pau was before this Court April 18, 2014 at 9:30 a.m. for a detention hearing. At that time, Peter Pau, the defendant's brother, agreed to act as a security on behalf of the defendant and post $50,000.00 cash bond. The cash bond of $50,000.00 was to be returned to Peter Pau upon the posting of a property bond in the amount of $250,000.00.

On May 13, 2014, Peter Pau and his wife, Elaine Pau, posted the property bond on behalf of defendant Yat Wa Pau in the amount of $250,000.00.

Undersigned counsel appeared in Court before Judge Corley on May 13, 2014 at 9:30 a.m. Counsel for defendant presented all necessary documents to confirm that the property posted was of sufficient value to cover the $250,000.00 bond. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate that the $50,000.00 cash bond paid by Peter Pau may be returned to him since the property bond has been posted.
